No student enrolled in the Bloomington Public School District shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination in any educational program or activity of this district on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, ancestry, national origin, place of residence, social or economic conditions, or non-applicable handicap. Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 specifically prohibits sex discrimination in education programs and activities. The Affirmative Action Officer shall be responsible for planning, implementing and monitoring an Affirmative Action program with respect to school and classroom practices. The Title IX Coordinator's primary responsibility is to coordinate the district's compliance with Title IX, including the grievance procedure for resolving Title IX complaints. Ms. Husser is the board appointed Affirmative Action Officer & Title IX Coordinator for the Bloomington Public School District. If you have a concern or would like to report a harassment allegation please contact Ms. Husser.
